

New café on the block

Calling in a panic, just four weeks before the opening, the owner of this stylish new café urgently needed some joinery. To create the style he was looking for, we used interlocking timber mouldings to create a stunning façade for his open kitchen. These mouldings were used on both the doors and the wall.

