

Renovated terrace
home offering
timeless elegance

This traditional Colonial terrace home renovation met the challenge of creating new joinery, which preserved the period feel of the home. Joinery was created for the kitchen, living areas and outdoor barbeque. Extensive detailing in the joinery was used in all units and wall paneling to create the traditional Shaker style in this renovation. Finishing touches included hand-painting of the TV unit.

