ART DECO SIGNAGE AT ITS BEST

St Joseph's School, Napier

Classic Art Deco features, such as a building's name displayed in lettering across a facade, were common in the bygone days and can be easily reproduced by Accumen Shapes Ltd.

This signage panel, cast in ShapeCrete® with recessed lettering, exemplifies traditional Art Deco style at its finest.

When showcasing a building's name, we not only reinforce its identity and importance, but establish its purpose within the community.

This ShapeCrete® feature, with its elegant stylized typeface, ties in perfectly and is in keeping with the historical nature of the buildings in the district of Napier - the Art Deco capital of New Zealand.

Credit should be given to Wynands Masonry who have done a superb job with the install, and got this just right!!
